FOR PRESIDENT,

WM. MCKINLEY.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

THEO. ROOSEVELT.

Should the Orpheum license question be referred to the people, there is no doubt as to the favorable returns.

Raising the teachers' salaries is one of the most popular in the list of good works that the Board of Education can perform. Considering the cost of living, there are few countries where the school teachers are treated with less liberality than in Hawaii.

Uncle Sam has never gained a more loyal set of men as naturalized citizens than those now being added to the list before the Supreme Court of Hawaii.
These gentlemen by their long residence have not only proved themselves good citizens, but in more than one instance have stepped into the breach to assist in upholding the American policy in the islands and carrying it to the happy conclusion in which they now share.

A Lima, Peru, dispatch gives an account of the destruction by fire of a celebrated convent located in an interior province. "The fire and another other they attribute to the efforts and propaganda of the American missionaries in that section" is the closing sentence of the dispatch. If there is anything under the canopy for which American missionaries have not at one time or another been held responsible, it ought to be published. It has become almost an axiom, "When in doubt blame the missionaries."

It has ever been a characteristic of the Prohibition party to count its electoral chickens before they hatch. Under the intoxication of a cold water pipe-dream, this party has for years past declared, previous to the election, but the death knell of the old parties has been sounded and upon the ruins Prohibition will rise triumphant. With equal regularity the parties of bigotry and calamity have gone down to defeat before the sound sense of a progressive people. The Prohibition war cry is as harmless this year as it ever has been.

Among the allies which the Democrats are free to draw upon for the national campaign are scheduled Aguinaldo, Oom Paul and the Empress Dowager with her phalanx of Boxers. Aguinaldo is a bright and shining advocate of free silver for purchasing patriotism.
Oom Paul can uphold the honor of Populistic whippers, while the Empress Dowager represents calamity of an approved type that should satisfy Mr. Bryan's most pessimistic moments.
With these additions and a heavy contribution to the campaign fund from the New York Ice trust, the Democrats ought to be able to make a showing that will put in the shade the most gorgeous three ringed circus Barnum ever imagined.

THE CONTEST CLOSED.

Leaders in the effort to put down the Evening Bulletin's teachers' contest, and thereby prevent one of the public school teachers from enjoying a vacation trip at the hands of friends, must now know what lack of wisdom characterized their endeavors. Although there was a determined attempt made through jealous and sleepy contemporaries to defeat the Bulletin's good work, the people quickly saw the motive of the attack and refused it any degree of support. Ballots were gathered by school children and parents and as the contest proceeded teachers themselves became active in the support of the leaders. The result of the contest in a division of honors between Brother Bertram of St. Louis College and J. F.
Scott of Kauai was highly satisfactory to the friends of both these popular gentlemen. Although Brother Bertram had informed his friends that it would be impossible for him to make a vacation trip, the intense loyalty of the boys of the college could not be restrained from placing themselves on record as ever on the alert to keep their college in the lead.

The large number of votes given J.
F. Scott is a fitting tribute to his long and acceptable service in the public schools of the islands. Teachers, scholars and the large number of friends throughout the Territory will join in making Mr. Scott's vote unanimous.

TIME FOR ACTION.

With the shouting and celebration periods of Hawaii's first American steps passed on to history, it behooves the people to lose no time in taking up the immediate problems presented by the universal demand for decentralization and localizing the government of the Territory. Unquestionably powerful influences will be brought to bear to stave off municipal organization and continue the present methods. The policy of delay will not be successful.
The sentiment among the people on this and the other islands in favor of town, county and city corporations is too strong to overcome. The first Legislature will without doubt go into office with a majority pledged to enact a general municipal law.

If good business administration is to be secured, the general outline for legislative action must be given prompt and careful attention. Practical men and theoretical cranks, radicals and conservatives should get down to non-partisan public spirited business with the end in view that the Legislature may be better able to enact a law which in its general outline shall have received the mature deliberation of the people and will prove acceptable to them. This can only be accomplished by the people themselves taking the initiative; the sooner the better. The civic federation or the Chamber of Commerce is looked to for the inauguration of the movement. One or both should act without further unnecessary delays.

SENATOR JONES THREATENED

Little Rock (Ark), June 25.—The most interesting contest expected to come before the Democratic State Convention, which assembles here tomorrow, was settled this afternoon when Congressman McKee announced that he would not be a candidate to succeed himself as National Committee man, thus giving a clear field to ex-Governor James P. Clarke. This is considered a defeat for Senator James K. Jones, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, who favored McKee. Clarke is generally understood to be a candidate for United States Senator two years hence against Senator Jones.

Cassini May Succeed Muraviev.

London, June 26.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Express says: Four Russian Embassadors are here, by accident or design—Count Cassini, Embassador to the United States; Count de Neldoff, Embassador to Italy; Count Kaptist, Em-bassador to Austria-Hungary, and Prince Oukosoff, Embassador to France. It is said that Count Muraviev's successor at the Russian Foreign Office will be one of these, and I am informed that Count Cassini stands the best chance.

BY AUTHORITY

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE Territory of Hawaii.

ORDER FOR A SPECIAL TERM.

By virtue of the statute in such cases made and provided and deeming it necessary to the promotion of justice, it is ordered that a Special Term of the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii be held in Honolulu, Island of Oahu, in the Court Room of the said Court, commencing at 10 o'clock, a. m. on TUESDAY, the tenth day of July, 1900.
By the Court:

HENRY SMITH,
Clerk Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii.
Dated at Honolulu aforesaid, this sixth day of July, 1900. 15763

In the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii—June Term, 1900.—Grand Juries.

1. WHEN REQUIRED.

"No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment of indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger." U. S. Const., Amend., Art. 5.

2. HOW DRAWN.

"Until otherwise provided by the Legislature of the Territory, grand juries may be drawn in the manner provided by the Hawaiian statutes for drawing petty juries." Org. Act, Sec. 83.

3. QUALIFICATIONS OF JURORS.

"No person who is not a male citizen of the United States and twenty-one years of age and who can not understandingly speak, read and write the English language shall be a qualified juror or grand juror in the Territory of Hawaii," and all jurors shall hereafter be constituted without reference to the race or place of nativity of the jurors." Org. Act, Sec. 83.

4. NUMBER OF JURORS.

"The number of grand jurors in each circuit shall be not less than thirteen nor more than twenty-three. See Org.
Act, Sec. 83.

5. SESSIONS.

Legislature of the Territory, grand juries * * * shall sit at such times as the circuit judges of the respective circuits shall direct." Org. Act, Sec. 83.

6. CHALLENGES.

Before the grand jury retires, the prosecuting officer or any person held to answer a charge for a criminal offense, may challenge the panel or an individual juror, for cause to be sa-igned to the court. All such challenges shall be tried and determined by the court.

7. FOREMAN.

From the persons summoned to serve as grand jurors and appearing, the court shall appoint a foreman, and may remove him for cause. The court may appoint another foreman when the necessity arises.

8. OATH OF GRAND JURORS.

Substantially the following oath shall be administered to the grand jurors:

"You, and each of you, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will diligently inquire, and true presentment make, of all such matters and things as shall be given you in charge, or shall otherwise come to your knowledge touching this present service; that you will present no one through envy, natural, or malice, nor leave any one im-presented through fear, favor, affection gain, reward or hope thereof, but will present all things truly as they come to your knowledge, according to the best of your understanding; and that you will keep secret the proceedings had before you."

9. CHARGE OF THE COURT.

The grand jury, being impanelled and sworn, shall be charged by the court. In doing so, the court shall give them such information as it may deem proper as to their duties and as to the law pertaining to such cases as may come before them. The court may further charge the jury when the necessity arises.

10. OFFICER IN ATTENDANCE.

The court may appoint an officer to attend upon the grand jury.

11. RETIREMENT OF THE GRAND JURY.

The grand jury shall then retire to a private room and inquire into the offenses cognizable by them.

12. CLERK.

The grand jury may appoint one of their number to be their clerk, to preserve minutes of the proceedings before them, which minutes shall be delivered to the prosecuting officer, when so directed by the grand jury.

13. SUBPOENA OF WITNESSES.

"The several circuit courts may subpoena witnesses to appear before the grand jury in like manner as they subpoena witnesses to appear before their respective courts." Org. Act, Sec. 83.

14. SWEARING WITNESSES.

Witnesses appearing before the grand jury may be sworn in open court or by the foreman of the grand jury, or, in his absence, by any member thereof.

The oath or affirmation may be substantially as follows:

"You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the evidence which you shall give before the grand jury shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

15. PRESENCE OF OTHERS WITH JURORS.

The prosecuting officer or any member of the grand jury may interrogate witnesses before the grand jury. The prosecuting officer shall advise the grand jury in regard to the law of the cases that come before them, and draw the indictments.

An interpreter may be present at the examination of witnesses before the grand jury.

Except the prosecuting officer, interpreter, and witnesses under examination, no person shall be permitted to be present during the sessions of the grand jury.

No person except the members of the grand jury shall be permitted to be present during the expression of their opinions, or the giving of their votes.

16. TWELVE GRAND JURORS TO CONCUR.

No indictment shall be found, nor shall any presentment be made, without the concurrence of at least twelve grand jurors.

17. INDORSEMENT BY FOREMAN AND PROSECUTING OFFICER.

An indictment when found shall be indorsed, "A true bill," and such indorsement shall be signed by the foreman. An indictment shall be indorsed also by the prosecuting officer. A presentment, when made, shall be signed by the foreman.

18. PRESENTING AND FILING.

Indictments or presentments, when found, shall be presented by the foreman, in the presence of the other grand jurors, to the court, and shall there be filed; but such as are found for a felony against any person not in custody or under recognizance, shall not be open to the inspection of any person except the prosecuting officer, until the defendant therein shall have been arrested.

The foregoing rules relating to grand juries are hereby prescribed.

Electric Railway.

Contracts have been let for material, and the work of construction, equipping and installation placed in the hands of a competent electrical engineer to be fully completed by June 1st. Having an independent power plant we are prepared to furnish electric power for lighting, heating and other purposes, to our home builders at most reasonable rates.

As Promised.

Our reservoirs are now completed and water mains laid so as to supply each lot. Permits for making water connections will be granted on application.

An inspection of the attractive homes now building, on the names of purchasers of lots, will convince anyone that

NOTICE.

To Our English-Speaking Friends: The Chinese merchants and residents of the Hawaiian Islands, represented by the undersigned, being desirous of providing for their sons a thorough and comprehensive education in English, raised in pledges from August to December, sufficient funds to justify them in undertaking to erect commodious buildings for this purpose in Kamakeia. The contract was let and the main building partially completed, when the plague broke out and interrupted the work. As you well know, our countrymen have been the greatest sufferers from this epidemic and the fires connected with it. Consequently those who generously subscribed toward the school enterprise, being called upon to donate large sums for the relief of their fellow-countrymen who have suffered severely from the fire, find themselves unable to fulfill their pledges at present. The main building is now on the point of completion, and the contractor, himself homeless, is in great need of his money.
In this emergency, and because we believe you recognize that our motives in undertaking this enterprise were philanthropic, our object a commendable one, and that we are in no wise at fault for the straits in which we now find ourselves; we therefore solicit such contributions to our present needs as your beneficence will allow. Send all cash or pledges to Wong Kwai, Box 954, Honolulu.
Very respectfully yours,
